The Board

The Single Resolution Board ("the Board"), as part of the Single Resolution Mechanism (SRM), will be one of the key elements of Europe's new Banking Union, along with the Single Supervisory Mechanism. The Banking Union is essential to make Europe's banking markets work better and to break the link between banks and national finances.

The SRM is designed to provide Europe with an efficient and effective framework for the resolution of banks and ensure that resolution rules are applied consistently in the euro area and other Member States participating in the Banking Union.

The Board will carry out specific tasks to prepare for and carry out the resolution of a bank that is failing or likely to fail. A Single Resolution Fund will be set up under the control of the Board to ensure that medium-term funding support is available while a credit institution is being restructured and/or resolved.

The Board's operating costs will be funded from the contributions of the banks participating to the SRM.

The job

The Board is organising a call for expressions of interest with a view to establishing a reserve list of Temporary Agents for the position of Senior Legal Adviser.

1. Profile

The senior legal adviser will contribute to set up the governance structure of the Board and its operational activities on a sound legal basis

He/she will be providing advice to management, colleagues with a service-oriented attitude and can-do approach. He/she may be asked to act as team leader, coordinating and supervising the work of other team members.

1.1 Tasks

The senior legal adviser's tasks will include, amongst others, the following:

- Conduct extensive legal research, provide detailed analysis of assigned matters and prepare legal opinions, legal instruments and documents on the application and interpretation of the rules and procedures as well as any other applicable legal provisions;
- Facilitate the decision-making processes by providing legal input and by ensuring proper follow-up; in particular for the acts and decisions prepared for the adoption by the Board;
- Analyse, monitor, report and give advice to the management on matters involving the SRB's constitution and governance structure;
- Drafting the rules of procedures and other decisions to allow for a smooth functioning of the Board in both its executive and plenary sessions, and of the Appeal Panel;
- Drafting of memoranda of understanding and arrangements with EU Institutions, National Authorities and other the relevant stakeholders;
- Manage relationships with external lawyers and contractors when it is appropriate;
- Liaise with experts and counterparts in EU Institutions (European Commission, European Parliament, Council, European Central Bank), National Resolution Authorities and other stakeholders.
- Providing spot-on and pragmatic legal advice on issues concerning the set-up of the new Board as an independent EU Agency;

Qualifications and experience required

2. Eligibility criteria

2.1 General conditions

By the closing date of this call candidates must:

- be nationals of a Member State of the European Union;
- enjoy their full rights as citizens;
- have fulfilled any obligations imposed by national laws concerning military service;
- meet the character requirements for the duties involved;
- be physically fit to perform their duties¹.

2.2 Education

Candidates are required to have:

- A level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least four years attested by a diploma,
- or
- A level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of a least three years attested by a diploma together with an additional year of relevant professional experience

Only qualifications issued by EU Member State authorities and qualifications recognised as equivalent by the relevant EU Member State authorities will be accepted. At least one of the university studies mentioned above must be in a field relevant to the position.

Candidates must have, at the closing date for applications, professional experience of at least 9 years² (in addition to the 1 year mentioned under 'Education'), including professional experience directly relevant to the tasks of at least 5 years.

2.4 Languages skills

As the predominant working language of the Board is English, candidates must therefore have an excellent command of spoken and written English. Candidates must also have a satisfactory knowledge of another official language of the European Union³.

¹ Before taking up his/her duties, the successful candidate will undergo a medical examination by one of the institutions' medical officers.

² Professional experience will be counted from the date on which the applicant acquired the minimum qualification for access to the profile in question. Only duly documented professional activity (i.e. remunerated employment or self-employment) is taken into account. Part-time work will be taken into account in proportion to the percentage of full-time hours worked. Periods of education or training and unremunerated traineeships are not taken into account. Fellowships, grants and PhDs can be counted as professional experience up to a maximum of 3 years. Any given time period can be counted only once (e.g. if the applicant had a full-time job and did freelance consultancy work in the evenings and weekends, the days spent on the latter will not be added to the period of the former).

3. Selection criteria

Essential:

- Suitability to perform the tasks described in Section 1.1;
- Excellent analytical and problem-solving skills, applying legal excellence in the identification and description of legal risks and development of constructive solutions to senior management/customers;
- Professional experience in drafting legal documents, decisions and opinions, including developing governance models and rules of procedures for decision-making bodies;
- Knowledge of and professional experience with the organization, structure and working procedures of the European Union, its institutions and decision making process;
- Excellent drafting skills in English.

Advantageous:

- Professional experience in financial services regulation and/or bank resolution;
- A pro-active and dynamic working attitude in multicultural environments;
- Ability to explain complex legal issues to non-experts.

The selection process

4. How to apply

You may apply through the EU CV Online system⁴.

Please note that this selection procedure is published in parallel with the temporary agent selections for seven other profiles at the Single Resolution Board. You may apply for only one profile.

To be able to apply online via the EU CV online database, candidates must first create an account or sign in to an existing account. If not done already, candidates must first fill in the electronic CV. Applications shall be made in English. Once the CV is completed, candidates may choose and apply to the call of interest of their choice. Candidates are advised to fill out all relevant fields of the application. All technical questions concerning EU CV online must be sent through the Contact page of EU CV online.

Before applying, you should carefully check whether you meet all the eligibility criteria.

It is your responsibility to complete your online registration in time. We strongly advise you not to wait until the last few days before applying, since heavy internet traffic or a problem with the internet connection could lead to your online registration being interrupted before

If you have a disability that prevents you from registering online, you may submit your application (CV and letter of motivation) on paper by registered mail⁵, postmarked no later than the closing date for registration. All subsequent communication between the Commission and you will be by post. In this case, you must enclose with your application a certificate attesting your disability, issued by a recognised body. You should also set out on a separate sheet of paper any special arrangements you think are needed to make it easier for you to take part in the selection.

If you require more information and/or encounter technical problems, please send an e-mail to MARKT-SRB-RECRUITMENT@ec.europa.eu.

5. Steps of the selection procedure

5.1 Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the selection committee will check the submitted applications against eligibility criteria described in Section 2. Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the selection criteria under Section 3.

⁵ European Commission, Directorate General for Internal Market and Services, Taskforce for the creation of the Single Resolution Board, SPA2 09/29, B-1049 Brussels.

5.2 Initial assessment of the applications

The selection committee will assess each eligible application according to the qualifications and training, professional experience and motivation of the candidate with respect to the profile described in Section 1.1.

5.3 Invitation to assessment phase

Following the initial assessment of the applications, the most suitable candidates for the post will be invited to an interview which will be held in Brussels. Apart from the interview, the assessment of candidates at this stage may also involve additional tests.

Details of the time, date and address of the interview will be communicated to candidates in due time.

Candidates invited will be requested to submit, on the day of the interview, a non-certified copy of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience, clearly indicating the starting and finishing dates, the function(s) and the exact nature of the duties carried out.

Prior to contract signature, the successful candidate(s) will be required to provide original versions of documents proving the eligibility criteria.

5.4 The assessment phase

An interview and any other test(s) with the selection committee will enable it to carry out an assessment of the candidate according to the selection criteria described in Section 3.

The assessment phase will be conducted in English.

5.5 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The candidates' application will be checked against supporting documents provided in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

If, at any stage in the procedure, it is established that the information in an application has been knowingly falsified, the candidate will be disqualified from the selection process.

You will also be disqualified if you:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.6 Reserve list

The selection committee will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list. This draft will be submitted to the acting Chair of the Board for approval. The adopted reserve list will be valid until 31 December 2015. Reserve lists may be extended by decision of the Board. Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by the Board (e.g. including a further interview).

Inclusion on a reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in the Board.

Other important information

6. General information

6.1 Equal opportunities

The European Commission, on behalf of the Board, applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on any grounds.

6.2 Selection committee

A selection committee will be appointed. Please note that the selection committee's internal proceedings are strictly confidential and that any contact with its members is strictly forbidden.

6.3 Approximate timetable

The selection process may take some months to be completed; no information will be released during this period. The selection panel intends to finalise the recruitment process for this vacancy by early 2015, with a view for the selected candidate to take office in February/March 2015.

6.4 Recruitment conditions / Career

Successful candidates may be offered a contract as a temporary agent in accordance with the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities for an initial period of 3 years, renewable for another period of 3 years. After the second period, the contract may be renewed for an indefinite period.

The place of employment is Brussels (Belgium), where the Board will be based.

6.5 Remuneration

Successful applicants who are offered a contract of employment will, on their entry into service, be placed in step 1 or step 2 of the AD8 grade, according to the length of their professional experience. The basic monthly salaries for grade AD8 Officers, as at 1 January 2014 in Brussels, are:

- Step 1: € 6,350.35
- Step 2: € 6,617.20

In addition to the basic salary, staff members may be entitled to various allowances, in particular expatriation allowance, household allowance, dependent child allowance and education allowance. The salary is subject to a Community tax deducted at source and staff members are exempt of national taxation.

6.6 Protection of personal data

As the body responsible for organising the competition, the Board ensures that applicants' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Communities, L 8 of 12 January 2001). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data.

6.7 Appeal procedure

If a candidate considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Communities and Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Communities, at the following address:

European Commission
DG Internal Market and Services
Taskforce for the creation of the Single Resolution Board
Selection procedure: Ref. SRB/AD/2014/012
Rue de Spa 2, Office 09/029
1049, Brussels,
Belgium

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure (see Staff Regulations as modified by Council Regulation No 723/2004 of 22 March 2004 published in the Official Journal of the European Union L 124 of 27 April 2004 – <http://europa.eu/eur-lex>) starts to run from the time the candidate is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.
