

Privacy statement

Public consultation on the future of MREL policy

1. Introduction

The Single Resolution Board (SRB) processes your personal data in line with the Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 ('EUDPR')¹.

The privacy statement explains the reasons for processing your personal data, the way the SRB collects, handles and ensures protection of all personal data. It also specifies the contact details of the responsible SRB unit where you may exercise your rights, the SRB Data Protection Officer and the European Data Protection Supervisor (EDPS).

2. Who is responsible for processing your personal data?

The SRB is the data controller determining the purposes and means for the processing of your personal data. The SRB's Communications Team (SRB-INFO@srb.europa.eu) and Unit A1 (SRB-METHODOLOGY@srb.europa.eu) is responsible for the processing of data.

3. Why do we process your personal data?

The purposes of processing personal data is to gather industry views and stakeholder input with a public consultation for regulatory or public interest reasons related to the resolution of banking institutions through the EU survey² platform.

4. Legal basis for processing personal data

Participation in the public consultation voluntary. The legal basis for processing your personal data for the organisation of this survey, collection of feedback and follow-up is your consent³.

5. Who has access to your personal data?

When the SRB processes personal data for the purposes mentioned at part 3, the following persons may access your personal data on a strict need-to-know basis:

- Dedicated SRB staff members.

¹ Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free move

² The public consultation is carried out via an online survey using the EUSurvey platform, for which a privacy statement can be found here

³ 2 Articles 5(1d) and 7 of the EUDPR.

- The European Commission's EU Survey team for purposes of system support and maintenance.
- Under certain conditions outlined in law, personal data may be disclosed to third parties, (such as the European Anti-Fraud Office, the Court of Auditors, or law enforcement authorities) if it is necessary and proportionate for lawful, specific purposes.

6. Time limits for storing personal data

The personal data are stored for a maximum of one year and are deleted thereafter.

7. Data protection rights

You have the right to access your personal data and correct any data that is inaccurate or incomplete. You have also (with some limitations) the rights to delete your personal data or to restrict the processing of your personal data in line with the Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

8. Contact information

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Communications Team (SRB-INFO@srb.europa.eu) and the A1 team (SRB-METHODOLOGY@srb.europa.eu).

The SRB's Data Protection Officer at SRB-DPO@srb.europa.eu answers all queries relating to personal data protection.

9. Addressing the European Data Protection Supervisor

If you consider that your rights under Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 have been violated as a result of the processing of your personal data, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the European Data Protection Supervisor at any time.
