The SRB

The Single Resolution Board (SRB) is the central resolution authority within the Banking Union (BU). Together with the National Resolution Authorities (NRAs) of participating Member States (MS), it forms the Single Resolution Mechanism (SRM). The SRB works closely with the NRAs, the European Commission (EC), the European Central Bank (ECB), the European Banking Authority (EBA) and National Competent Authorities (NCAs). It contributes to safeguarding financial stability.

Its mission is to ensure an orderly resolution of failing banks with minimum impact on the real economy and on public finances of the participating Member States and beyond. Therefore, the SRB is granted with specific tasks and responsibilities to prepare for, and carry out, the resolution of banks that are failing or likely to fail.

The SRB is also responsible for managing the Single Resolution Fund, as established by the SRM Regulation, to ensure that medium-term funding support is available while a bank is being restructured and/or resolved.

The SRB is a self-financed agency of the European Union.

The job

The SRB is organising a call for expressions of interest with a view to establishing a reserve list of Temporary Agents for the position of Data Science Expert.

1. Profile

The jobholder will support the SRB's Data Management Team in the data collection, data preparation and subsequent development of statistical/data science models needed for the SRB's financial stability unit and more broadly, the analytical work of the SRB as a whole.

He/She will be part of multi-disciplinary and multinational team headed by senior experts. He/She will actively support the Data Management Team and the Head of Unit in the fulfilment of their tasks.

He/She will be providing advice to senior colleagues with a service-oriented attitude and a can-do approach.

1.1 Tasks

The Data Science Expert's duties will include:

- Design and develop new statistical frameworks and datasets for financial stability and resolution planning analysis;
- Support the development of business requirements for the SRB's Data Warehouse Project;
- Support further standardisation and integration of different statistical systems with others business areas of the SRB, ECB, national central banks, national competent authorities (e.g. national resolution authorities), EBA and other stakeholders;
- Write complex SQL queries to analyse our databases with large number of registries, and work effectively with relational database systems;
- Ensure the correct use of the databases by internal stakeholders (e.g.: bank resolution experts), providing technical support when needed.
- Contribute to other work, mostly related to managing large-scale datasets and developing related IT systems;
- Designing good ways of communicating, visualising or reporting results/analysis so they are clear and unambiguous.
- Support the preparation of notes, presentations and briefings in proficient English.

More broadly, he/she will also:

- Perform economic and financial analysis for financial stability and resolution planning purposes;
- Provide quantitative analysis of financial markets and present results to Head of Unit and Senior Management;
- Perform any other duties as required by line management in the interest of the service.

Qualifications and Other requirements

2. Eligibility criteria

Only complete applications registered via EU CV ONLINE and before the deadline for applications as mentioned in this document will be considered. Applications must include a motivation letter and a CV, both submitted in English to be considered; applications received in other languages than English will not be considered eligible.

2.1 General conditions

By the closing date of this call candidates must:

- be nationals of a Member State of the European Union;
- enjoy their full rights as citizens¹;
- have fulfilled any obligations imposed by national laws concerning military service;
- meet the character requirements for the duties involved;
- be physically fit to perform their duties².

2.2 Education

A level of education which corresponds to completed university studies of at least three years attested by a diploma in economics, engineering, computer science, statistics, mathematics, finance or another field relevant to the position.

Only study titles that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are subject to the equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in the said Member States shall be taken into consideration.

2.4 Languages skills

As the predominant working language of the SRB is English, candidates must have an excellent command of spoken and written English (note: native English speakers will be required to demonstrate the ability to work in a second EU language at interview stage). Candidates must also have a satisfactory knowledge of another official language of the European Union³ to the extent necessary for the performance of his/her duties.

3. Selection criteria

Essential

3.1 Specific experience

¹ Prior to the appointment, the successful candidate will be asked to provide a certificate of good conduct, confirming the absence of any criminal record.

² Before taking up his/her duties, the successful candidate will undergo a medical examination by one of the institutions' medical officers.

³ Bulgarian, Croatian, Czech, Danish, Dutch, English, Estonian, Finnish, French, Irish, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Latvian, Lithuanian, Maltese, Polish, Portuguese, Romanian, Slovak, Slovenian, Spanish, Swedish.

- Suitability to perform the tasks described in Section 1.1;
- Strong background in quantitative and statistical analysis gained through projects and/or formal education;
- Understanding of latest database technologies and database strategies to inform discussions with the IT function aimed at enhancing the support of different usage models;
- Relevant knowledge in the field of data science or big data management;
- Knowledge of setup and maintenance of database systems;
- Excellent academic record⁴;
- Knowledge in using standard reporting tools such as QlikView/Tableau/etc. and business intelligence tools such as TIBCO Spotfire, MS Power BI, Excel and others.

3.2 General competences

- Excellent analytical and problem-solving skills, quickly understanding problems and identifying possible solutions;
- The ability to deeply understand the complex networks behind the analysis of financial stability problems leading to the right recommendations to support the decisions to be taken by the respective stakeholders;
- Software engineering skills in statistical computing languages (SQL, R, Matlab, Stata, Python, Julia);
- Customer-oriented attitude and "team-working spirit".
- Pragmatic problem-solver - someone who looks for solutions, delivering results, rather than worrying about problems;

Advantageous

- A master's degree in Engineering, Computer Science, Data Science, or Scientific studies (e.g.: mathematics, physics, statistics, etc.);
- Knowledge of the European Banking Union, and in particular the SRM and SRB;
- Experience in either in the financial industry or in a central bank, national supervisory or resolution authority;
- Experience using Bloomberg terminal – monitoring and analysing real-time financial market data;
- Experience of working in a multicultural environment.

The selection process

4. How to apply

Candidates must apply through the EU CV Online system⁵ via this link:

⁴ Candidates are invited to indicate details on their overall grade obtained for their main University degree(s) in the application form, as well as the grades obtained in the main subjects relevant to the position. A certified copy of a full transcript with all results will be requested to successful candidates prior to their recruitment.

⁵ EU CV Online is the tool used by the European Commission for recruitment of staff on temporary basis.

https://ec.europa.eu/dgs/personnel_administration/open_applications/CV_Cand/index.cfm?fuseaction=premierAcces

Before applying, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria.

To be able to apply online via the EU CV online database, candidates must first create an account or sign in to an existing account. If not done already, candidates must first fill in the electronic CV, write the motivation letter and apply to the call for expressions of interest. Applications shall be made in English to be considered. It is the sole responsibility of each applicant to complete ALL relevant fields of his/her online application and to submit it before the deadline for submission. All technical questions concerning EU CV online must be sent through the Contact page of EU CV online.

It is strongly advised not to wait until the last few days before the deadline for applying, since heavy internet traffic or connection difficulties could lead to problems.

Once the deadline has passed, candidates will no longer be able to register.

Deadline for applications: 11/03/2019 at midday (12:00 Brussels time).

No supporting documents are required at this stage – these will be required at a later stage.

On completion of the online registration, candidates will receive on screen a registration number, which they must note. This will be the reference number of the candidate in all matters concerning his/her application. If the candidate does not receive a number, the application has not been registered.

After a correct submission of an application, candidates will receive an automated acknowledgement of receipt of their application to the email account indicated in their application. It is the candidate's responsibility to verify that he/she provided the correct e-mail address.

Candidates are invited to indicate any special arrangements that may be required if invited to attend the assessment.

If the candidate requires more information, he/she will have to send an e-mail to SRB-RECRUITMENT@srb.europa.eu.

5. Steps of the selection procedure

5.1 Admission to the selection procedure

After the deadline for online registration, the Selection Panel will verify the submitted applications against the eligibility criteria described in Section 2 "Eligibility criteria". Applications satisfying these conditions will then be assessed against the "Selection criteria" under Section 3.

5.2 Assessment of the eligible applications

The Selection Panel will analyse the motivation letters and CVs of eligible applicants with reference to:

- The Selection Criteria (“Essential” and “Advantageous”)
- The overall assessment of the quality & suitability of the application based on the requirements of the post.

Upon completion of the assessment, the Selection Panel will establish a shortlist of candidates best matching the needs of the Agency for the functions and duties mentioned in this vacancy notice and non-retained candidates will be notified of the status of their application.

5.3 Invitation to assessment phase

Following the evaluation of the applications, the most suitable candidates for the post will be invited to an assessment, which will be held in Brussels.

Details of the time, date and address of the assessment will be communicated to candidates in due time.

5.4 The assessment phase

An interview and a written test, and/or other tests with the Selection Panel will enable it to carry out an assessment of the candidate according to the “Selection criteria” described in Section 3.

The assessment phase will be conducted in English.

5.5 Verification of documents and scrutiny

The candidates' applications will be checked against supporting documents provided in order to confirm the accuracy and eligibility of the application.

The candidate will be disqualified from the selection process if at any stage of the procedure it is established that the information provided in the application has been knowingly falsified or incorrect.

You will also be disqualified if you:

- do not meet all the eligibility criteria;
- do not provide all the required supporting documents.

5.6 Reserve list

The Selection Panel will place the most suitable eligible candidates on a draft reserve list. This draft will be submitted to the Chair of the SRB for approval. The adopted reserve list will be valid until 31/12/2019. The validity of the reserve list may be extended by decision of the Chair of the Board.

Candidates should note that inclusion on a reserve list does not imply any entitlement to employment in the SRB.

Prior to being offered a post, candidates on a reserve list may be required to undergo further evaluation by the SRB (e.g. including a further interview).

Other important information

6. General information

6.1 Equal opportunities

The SRB applies a policy of equal opportunities and accepts applications without discrimination on the ground of sex, race, colour, ethnic or social origin, genetic features, language, religion or belief, political or any other opinion, membership of a national minority, property, birth, disability, age or sexual orientation.

6.2 Selection Panel

A Selection Panel will be appointed for this selection procedure and will be composed of at least 3 members (and alternates), including a member designated by the Staff Committee of the SRB.

The names of the Selection Panel members will be communicated to the shortlisted candidates in the invitation letter to their assessment.

Under no circumstances should candidates approach the Selection Panel, either directly or indirectly, concerning the selection procedure. The Selection Panel's internal proceedings are strictly confidential and any contact with its members is strictly forbidden. The Chair of SRB reserves the right to disqualify any candidate who disregards these instructions.

6.3 Approximate timetable

The selection process may take some months to be completed; no information will be released during this period.

6.4 Appointment and conditions of employment

On the basis of the reserve list, successful candidates may be offered a contract as a Temporary Agent, AD5, in accordance with the SRB's Implementing Provisions on the employment of Temporary staff under Article 2f of the Conditions of employment of other servants of the European Union for an initial period of 3 years (including a probationary period of nine months).

The contract may be renewed for a further period of three years. After the second period, the contract may be renewed for an indefinite period.

The place of employment is Brussels (Belgium), where the SRB has its premises.

Temporary Agents will be required to demonstrate before their first promotion the ability to work in a third official language of the EU.

6.5 Remuneration

Successful candidates who are offered a contract of employment will, on entry into service, be placed in step 1 or step 2 of the relevant grade, according to the length of their professional experience. The basic monthly salaries for grade AD5, as at 1 July 2018 in Brussels, are:

- Step 1: €4.787,36

- Step 2: €4.988,53

In addition to the basic salary, staff members may be entitled to various allowances depending on their personal situation, such as expatriation allowance, household allowance, dependent child allowance, education allowance, etc. The salary is subject to a Community tax deducted at source and staff members are exempt of national taxation.

6.6 Protection of personal data

The purpose of processing the data submitted by candidates is to evaluate applications in view of possible recruitment at the SRB. The personal information requested by the SRB from candidates will be processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725⁶, of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data (Official Journal of the European Communities, L 295/39, 21 November 2018). This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data. In this regard, please see the Privacy statement.

6.7 Appeal procedure

Pursuant to Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union, any candidate may submit to the SRB a complaint against an act adversely affecting him/her. Any such complaint should be made to:

SRB Single Resolution Board

For the attention of the Chair of the SRB
Selection procedure: Ref. SRB/AD/2019/001
Treurenberg 22
